

Thin Client Configuration:

Attached provides a general system design and bill of material listing for two thin client configurations. One configuration for an organization with less than 500 users and the second configuration for an organization with more that 500 users. These general system designs will assist Government users in gauging the type of resources required to migrate to thin client environment and shall reflect the current product offering of the contractor. The system designs will be updated once a year.